

Beginnings Found in the New Testament

Directions: Look up the verses listed below. Decide which of the three Old Testament events it refers to and draw a line to that event.

Matthew 24:37-39

Acts 14:15

1 Peter 3:20

The Creation

Revelation 4:11

1 Corinthians 11:7

Colossians 3:10

Man Created in the Image of God

Luke 17:26,27

James 3:9

Hebrews 1:10

Revelation 10:6

The Flood

John 1:1,2

Hebrews 11:3

To think about:

Why are these three Old Testament events significant to understanding God's Word?

What emphasis does the New Testament place upon these three events?

The New Testament Speaks of the Patriarchs

Directions: Many times in the New Testament the patriarchs of the Old Testament are mentioned. Look up the following references and write what it reveals about these characters in Genesis.

Wanderings

Group 1

On the basis of Numbers 9:15–10:10, describe how God directed His people. Also explain how the use of trumpets represented human effort (cf. Exod. 13:21,22; 14:19,20).

Group 2

Study the incident of the spies in Numbers 13 and Deuteronomy 1. Then from what you know of the events of the exodus and the content of the chapter in the text, point out why Joshua and Caleb had a reasonable basis for their faith and optimism.

Group 3

Reread Deuteronomy 4–6. From these chapters make a list of ideas for establishing a Christian home and child rearing. To help you get started look at Deut. 4:9,10; 6:1,2.
